

Anders Stephanson to address Graduate Workshop in Diplomatic History

The next meeting of the Graduate Workshop in Diplomatic History will be held on Thursday, April 27, at 3:30 p.m. in Room 120 of the Mershon Center for International Security Studies. Our guest will be Anders Stephanson, who will speak on "Occupation, Empire and the Uplifting Principle of Self-Determination: Reflections on the United States."

Dr. Stephanson is James P. Shenton Associate Professor at Columbia University. He specializes in 20th century American foreign relations as well as history and theory. His published works include Kennan and the Art of Foreign Policy (1989) and Manifest Destiny (1995). He is working on a historiographical book on diplomatic history and a work tentatively entitled The United States as a Cold War.

The readings for Dr. Stephanson's talk are available outside Peter Hahn's office (Dulles 271). Please e-mail chamberlin.33@osu.edu if you have any questions.
